

Accreditation

Eastern Sydney Division of General Practice can assist you with the accreditation process. There are two accreditation bodies to choose from; AGPAL and GPA. They both assess your practice against the RAGGP General Practice Standards.

AGPAL Accreditation is the leading provider of quality improvement that will help your practice increase efficiency, reduce risk, and stay current with trends and best practices.

From helping improve your systems, to providing the latest risk management advice and resources, AGPAL Accreditation goes beyond the usual and provides practical analysis, guidance and benchmarks from the field.
