Creating nursing's future

Being a member

As a member of The College of Nursing, you are part of an impressive group of past, present and future high achievers. College members play a leading role in the provision of quality healthcare and setting the direction of nursing policy.

As a financial member of the College you are:

- part of a leading professional body of Australian nurses
- able to access all of the benefits outlined overleaf
- eligible to use the post-nominals MCN
- contributing to the professional image and direction of nursing, and
- maintaining an active voice in the design, development and delivery of health care services in Australia.

Where does my money go?

Membership fees are an essential source of revenue for the College. As a professional and non-profit organisation, we depend on our fundraising events, sponsorship, membership fees and donations to deliver, develop and evaluate our services.

The College of Nursing wishes to make it clear that it has no connection with the Royal College of Nursing, Australia
